Drum Circle Class

Do you want to learn how to drum but don't know where to begin? Join the Adler Center for its Drum Circle Class. Facilitated improvisation/freestyle drumming and percussion. You will be taught technics of drumming, hands patterns, drum language and rhythms. Students are required to bring any kind of "ethnic" hand drum. Examples of drums may include, Djembes, Bata drums, Doumbeks, Bongos, Congas, or African talking drums. This class is geared towards those who have little or no prior drumming experience, but also can accommodate players of all levels.

Guitar Ensemble

Guitar Ensemble is a performance class of literature for guitar ensembles: duets, trios, quartets and larger groups. This Guitar Ensemble will include music from the Renaissance period through Modern classical music as well as Pop and Contemporary works for guitar ensembles. Classical guitar preferred (nylon strings) or a steel-string acoustic is required. Ages: 11 and up - experienced guitarist.

Beginning Musicianship & Music Theory

Supplement your private music instruction; Musicianship & Music Theory Class will build your understanding of fundamental concepts of music. These classes cover topics of music theory such as counterpoint and harmony, as well topics in music history and ear training. Learning these concepts outside of private lessons will allow more time to focus on your instrument and repertoire.
