

David Adler Music & Arts Center Festival of the Arts

On behalf of the David Adler Music and Arts Center, it is my pleasure to extend this invitation to sponsor our 2017 Art Festival, "Festival of the Arts".

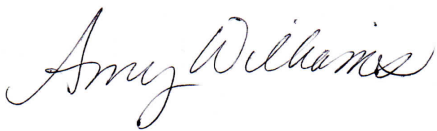

The Festival takes place in beautiful Cook Park located in historic downtown Libertyville.

Festival of the Arts showcases 40 to 100 artists from throughout the country. Artists representing six different visual art medias are juried prior to their acceptance to the festival. Once the festival is underway, a Best of Show and six Best of Category awards are given. Approximately 8,000 people from throughout the tri-state area attend the event each year. The two day event is enhanced by live music and a variety of activities for the children.

For over 35 years, the David Adler Music and Arts Center has been dedicated to enriching the lives of North Shore residents through quality arts and music education, exhibitions, and concerts. Our past and future success depends upon a strong base of generous people who realize the importance of David Adler's work, as well as the importance of supporting the arts in the place where we live and work. May we count on you?

We'd greatly appreciate your consideration to sponsor this year's Festival of the Arts. Enclosed you will find a description of this year's sponsorship opportunities.

Sincerely,

Amy Williams
Executive Director
David Adler Music and Arts Center
